Our new field worker was assigned to us this past Monday. We rejoice with Sem. Anthony Keilani who will be joining St. Paul as our first year field worker. Anthony will be installed during the second service today. Here is a little bio from Anthony and his family:

"Greetings Members of ST. Paul Preble! My name is Anthony Keilani and I will be your new field worker. I grew up in southeast Michigan, a suburb of Detroit. A product of the Lutheran School's system, I went on to attend the University of Michigan and majored in Neuroscience. After graduating in 2016, I worked as an assistant instructor for Neuroanatomy at Oakland University in Rochester, MI. My wife, Irene is a pastor's daughter from Boyne City, a town in northern Michigan. We met in late 2017 at the St. Michael's Liturgical Conference in Detroit, and were married June the flowing year at Hope Lutheran Church in Bellaire, MI. In May of this year we were blessed with a baby girl, Sylvia Ann (4 mo.) We moved to Fort Wayne in June and are looking forward to joining the St. Paul family!"

Malinda Bieberich and family thanks the congregation for their cards, prayers, visits, and well-wishes on the occasion of her 100th Birthday. Thanks to all who came to Adams, Heritage to celebrate this event.
